

I do not wish to see the No-Call list in Wisconsin changed. The past year has been so peaceful. We had been getting constant calls from 7am to as late as 10:30 at night from telemarketers trying to sell me their products. And some of these callers were actually rude. I consider it an invasion of my privacy to have to put up with these types of phone calls.